Violet and family...I did not have the pleasure of meeting your brother Jason. However; through our friendship over the past several years I feel like I more than knew your family through you and the amazing stories you shared. Your love for your family helped me to know what a wonderful group of people that you loved so dearly. I am so sorry to your family to hear of the passing of your brother. May God give you comfort to know he's in a much better place.
