It is sad that Kayla has left this world at such a young age especially since she has left behind two children, a husband, and many many more loved ones. I haven't seen her in quite some time, but I am glad that i can say that i was able to get to know her and her sisters very well while we were all living together. Kayla was a very beautiful person just as well as her sisters. I hated it when I heard Tiffany was gone almost two years ago, and it pains me to know Kayla is now gone as well.

Christina keep your head up, and if you ever need to talk you can find me on Facebook. I know what it is like to lose a sibling since I lost two of mine in 2008. Kayla and Tiffany, I know you are very missed and will always be missed. I love you all, and even though it is sad that you are no longer here with us, I can say you left us so you could go home to the lord because he obviously need you more than we did. Fly High
