She was truly an angel that walked this earth almost 81 years and who now walks in Heaven with our Heavenly Father, her family and friends. Goff, Wyatt G. Tillman and (arriving soon) Carter L. Tillman; great-grandchildren, Timothy D. Pate and Jessica N. Pate; and an awesome aunt to many nieces and nephews. She was a true friend to those who were lucky enough to have had the honor and opportunity. Her family would like to thank the many nurses and other medical personnel who cared for her over the last several years. They want to give a special thanks to Alicia Smotherman for always being there when she needed her most. She worked in the retail business , was a manager of several stores and retired from Variety Wholesalers, Inc., after 26 years of hard work and dedication. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time of sorrow. It is very hard to deal with the loss of a dear love one, but your family can get much hope and comfort from the scriptures. Here is one of these. It reads like this. "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Acts 24:15

To the Tillman Family I would like to take this time to express my condolences to the entire family. We are sorry to hear about the passing of Fannie Tillman. Yes we understand how you feel. There is not one person that has not lost someone in death. So as a universal family, when you grieve, we will all grieve together. Death has been claiming our family members for a long period of time. Are we not thankful to God in knowing that He will not let this enemy to continue to have the mastery over us. So from the scriptures He provides good news that everyone should give a listening ear to. Why just listen to this promise that God tells us. He states that soon He would empty the graves and restore life back to those who have died. (John 5:28-29) Would you not agree that this promise is certainly good news to hear. God's promise is not a hollow statement or promise. He wants everyone to have strong faith in His personal promise. For that reason, He has preserved eight accounts in the bible that speaks about this wonderful blessing from God. Here is one such example. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. Why not read the account to see how the verses would apply to Fannie, as God uses His powers to restore her back to life. Now try to envision this happy reunion of Fannie, with all the family members and friends. Since God is the source of all created life, the restoring of it is surely something that He can do. For now you will shed tears. You have reasons for doing so; after all, you have lost someone special. But soon, those tears of sadness will turn into tears of joy; for Fannie will live again. Why not find time to build your faith in this arrangement from God by reading about the resurrection provision. Yes remember that God has given us His promise. God does not lie. (Titus 1:2)
