Our deepest condolences to the entire Delmas family. We have so many memories of Paul and his siblings (growing up just down the street from us) as well as with Martha and his children. He will always be remembered as a loving, thoughtful man. Our thoughts, prayers, and love are with you all. Love, The Divine family.

Goodbye Uncle Paul. Your heart was too big to remain in this world. The love it contained is evident in those you have left behind - your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews and most importantly the love of your life - Martha. If a man is measured by his legacy, your's is vast indeed. You have touched so many lives and all of those lives are better for it. It was hard work raising all those kids, but you and Aunt Martha did a great job. God may have another angel, but this one is kicking ass and taking names. You are loved and missed Uncle Paul.

I am a cousin to Martha Flanagan Delmas. Would like to get in touch with Martha. I grew up going on my vacations to the Flanagan farm, in Nowata, OK. The barn still stands. God bless all the Delmas family.
