Robert I may have never known you but I can tell by your mom's postings and her family and friends that you left behind the fingers prints of love on all their hearts. It breaks my heart how much you are missed by them all. My prayers go up to God for them all. May they all find the peace and comfort of God's arms wrapped around them. I Pray that all the happy memories of your mom and dad shared raising you and your brother will overwhelm them with tears of happiness that they were so blessed that God chose them to be your parents. Blessings to you all.
