My sincere condolence to the children, grand-children and brothers and sisters. You all lost a very special lady and I as well lost a special friend and cousin. I never failed to see her when I came home to visit and I talked to her frequently by telephone. She was a great help to me in compiling our family tree. I do not have to say RIP to her because I know she is in heaven with loved ones. May God bless and comfort her loved left behind. I love all of you. Ernest
