I will surely miss Aunt Evia, she has been so good to me through the years and especially since mama passed away. I enjoyed our phone calls and big laughs. She always told me to "be careful... take care of yourself." I will always remember her smile with her head turned to the side, shaking her finger at me and us sharing a big laugh. I know she is having a big time in heaven w/ all our relatives.

Aunt Evie was a good woman. I mostly remember her from childhood visiting in her home with and playing with all my cousins. I would see her at the Lindsey reunion. It is Heaven's gain for sure.
