Ms. Pat was one of the kindest hearted ladies that I have ever met. We named my daughter Traci Lee... when she sat me down hours after my daughter was born and only 2 days after she had lost her son Tracy Robinson in a tragic accident in 1994. She asked me to please give her family the honor of naming my baby girl after him. It was not just their honor. It was mine and I was proud to have had the privilege of knowing her and having her son's namesake has been a blessing. Til we meet again.. tell Tracy and Ossie I will see them again one day and we still miss them dearly here on earth.
