My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I enjoyed working with Robin during her time at Physicians Billing part of the Medical Center in Macon, Ga. Robin always had a story to tell and pictures to share about her missionary work abroad. We swapped stories as she was also an adventurer, she referred me to the best place to sky dive and I will never forget her excitement as she shared that story with me and we viewed her pictures. She will be missed. Such a great kind woman and a hard worker.

Robin was a great friend to one and all. She was always ready to help anyone in need--it never mattered if she knew them or not. She had a heart of gold and fought this battle all the way to the end. She loved her family dearly. She was my sounding board and I was hers, we shared many secrets and thoughts during the years of our friendship. I was honored to be one of her good friends. Alton, you are sure good to her up to the very end. It takes a strong person to stand beside someone and watch them go thru something you have no control over. I know you will sadly miss her-- but just remember: she'll be in heaven talking up a blue streak and watching you and me! let's stay positive and trust God to lead us thru this rough stretch in our lives. Bobbie, you and I will have to have some more talks. I will be calling you soon!

Bobbie so sorry for you and the family in the loss of your precious daughter. You are one of the strongest women I know in your faith so hang on to that and GOD is going to wrap you all in his loving arms and get you through day by day, hour by hour, and minute by minute. Mama and I love you and will help pray you through this difficult time. Rely on the good like the time we went to Nashville at Christmas. What a blessing to have Robin along because I believe she was the only other young person with us. So, so sorry mama and I will not be at visitation or the funeral because Amy has a baby shower at the same time but know mama and I will be with you in thought and prayer during that time of day. Love to you sweet lady and all of your family. Wanda and Joyce
