Dear Little Ronnie, Eddie, Keith and Brother, Peggy was a true Southern Lady who always had a smile for everyone ... and always had good food to eat in her kitchen. She fried the only Pork Liver I've ever eaten... delicious...much better than Beef. How well I remember when she and Buddy (Harold) got married at Aunt Grayce and Aunt Shack's (Harris') Kings Chapel Road home. (Only in the South would a niece call her uncle "Aunt Shack!") I was so happy to have a new cousin who became known as "Little Ronnie" to not be confused with older Ronnie Parks. Peggy's "Brother" was always so handsome with his black wavy hair. The Mae and Walter Wilson sons and daughters were blessed to be married to very kind and considerate women and men. Sadly, Peggy is the last of this older generation of Wilson aunts and uncles. The last few years were challenging for her and her family. Am sure she will be very happy to see Mother (Norma), Aunt Grayce and her many loved family members and friends. Peggy, for more than 50 years, I am blessed you were a bright spirit in my Life shining true love and positive emotional support. Please give all my beloved beings (including my dogs and cats) a big hug and kiss letting them know how much I appreciate their daily angelic messages and guidance. Heart Full of Love, Judy
