Roger Brian Lewis

JUL 22, 1952 - JUN 9, 2013

HAYNESVILLE-

Roger Brian Lewis, 60, passed away on Sunday, June 9, 2013, with his devoted wife and loving family by his side, just as they had been throughout his lengthy illness. Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, June 13, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. at First Baptist Church of Haynesville with Reverend Winfred Huff officiating. Interment will be in First Baptist Church of Haynesville Cemetery immediately following the service. Visitation will be on Wednesday, June 12, 2013, from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m. at Watson-Hunt Funeral Home in Perry. Flowers will be graciously accepted or contributions may be made to First Baptist Church of Haynesville, P. O. Box 69, Clinchfield, GA 31013.

Roger was born in Hawkinsville to the late Benjamin Lewis, Jr. and Betty Snow Lewis. He grew up there and graduated from Hawkinsville High School. He proudly served our country in the National Guard for six years. Roger was a long-time member of First Baptist Church of Haynesville. He worked in various restaurants and in the food service industry all of his life. He enjoyed being the manager at IHOP in Macon for years, and his most recent time was spent as the manager at Ruby Tuesday in Dublin. A hard-worker and caring provider for his family, Roger's time away from work was precious to him, and he spent all of it with his family and at church, the two things he loved the most. He treasured the moments watching his three daughters grow up and begin families of their own, all the while working even harder for his wife to be a stay-at-home-mother and grandmother. Roger liked to work on old trucks, and taught each of his daughters the basics of mechanics when they were his "helpers" in the back yard. He was preceded in death by his brother Jim "Mac" Lewis.

Left to cherish the memories of "Daddy" are his best friend, comforter, and caregiver, his wife of 37 years, Vickie Moore Lewis of Haynesville; his daughters, Gamble Greathouse (Mike) of Centerville, Jenna Holland (Andy) of Warner Robins, and Jaime Winchester (A. J.) of Haynesville; his grandchildren, Barry Brian Holland, a little girl "on the way", Bailey Winchester, Joey
