Milton was born in Norfolk, Virginia to the late Otto Carl and Nettie Scipper Kessler. After graduating from high school, he proudly served our country in the U.S. Army. Milton made his career as a truck driver working for various companies. In his free time, he loved sailing, riding his motorcycle, and Milton's favorite hobby was collecting antique cars. He was a member of Christ's Sanctified Holy Church. Milton was preceded in death by his baby brother, Ralph Kessler, and brother-in-law, Jim Tate.

Left to cherish the memories they shared with Milton are his sister, Juanita Kessler Tate; step-brother, Fred Benson (Vicki); his niece, Kristy Kronberg; his nephew, Mike Adkins (Melissa); great-nieces and nephews, Ethan, Austin, Kaleb, Sophia, Noah; numerous cousins, and many cherished friends.

Condolences for the family may be left in our online guestbook at www.watsonhunt.com. Watson-Hunt Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements.
