GAYLON BERT DAVIS

OCT 23, 1952 - OCT 18, 2020

KATHLEEN –

Gaylon Davis, 67, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, October 18, 2020. A Memorial Service will be held in the Chapel at Watson-Hunt Funeral Home on Wednesday, October 21, 2020, at 2:00 p.m. The family will visit with friends the hour prior to the service, beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Gaylon was a lifelong resident of Kathleen and attended Warner Robins High School. He worked for Prickett Farms for over twenty years, hauling crops and hay as needed during harvest times. Gaylon loved to be outside and “piddle around,” often working in his garden “patch” growing a few peppers and other things to share, or sometimes even photographing the wonders of nature that intrigued him. Gaylon could talk with anyone, telling stories of times past, filling the room with laughter, and making friends easily, young and old, alike. Many who knew him have fond memories of riding on the tractor or combine with Gaylon. He enjoyed spending time with his family and lifelong friends who had become family to him.

Left to cherish the memories they made with Gaylon are his sister and brother-in-law, Donna and Danny Johnson of Kathleen; his nieces, Carrie Johnson Lambert (Ethan) and Kelly Johnson Miller (Rodney); and several great-nieces and great-nephews.

Gaylon was preceded in death by his parents, Bert and Gladys Smith Davis.

Condolences for the family may be left in the online guestbook at www.watsonhunt.com. Watson-Hunt Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Do not go gentle into that good night
Dylan Thomas - 1914-1953
Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at close of day;
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
Though wise men at their end know dark is right,
Because their words had forked no lightning they
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Good men, the last wave by, crying how bright
Their frail deeds might have danced in a green bay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
Wild men who caught and sang the sun in flight,
And learn, too late, they grieved it on its way,
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Grave men, near death, who see with blinding sight
Blind eyes could blaze like meteors and be gay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
And you, my father, there on the sad height,
Curse, bless, me now with your fierce tears, I pray.
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
~~~~~Dearest G, your light burns into eternity you were the sweetest, kindest friend all my love, Z

Donna my heart goes out to you and your family for your tremendous loss. We all grew up together living next door through our childhoods. Old Kathleen carries many wonderful memories through the years with our families that I will remember and cherish forever. Ah, and Gaylon we shared so many times together. He knew how to share life with us all. I sit here writing and thinking of all the times and smile with fondness of his memory Gaylon had a way about him like no other that could change any moment into a lasting memory. I was blessed to have that in my life. Rest easy my friend for you are with old Kathleen again smiling looking down upon us with that look you always had that you know something the rest of us don't. Donna know you and your family are always in our thoughts and prayers. James F. & Pat Farr

I have many childhood memories with Gaylon in them. He was part of our extended family. From camping, bonfires, family dinners and cookouts and holidays. He loved photography and did some shoots for me and friends while around a bonfire. He is a loving and caring man. Gaylon please give Nana a great big hug for me as I am sure she was waiting with open arms. Fly high dear friend. We have another angel watching over us all.
