Winfred Roz Wise

NOV 25, 1924 - NOV 3, 2020

Winfred R. “Roz” Wise, 95 of Warner Robins, passed away on Tuesday, November 3, 2020, just shy of his 96th birthday. Services will be held at Warner Robins First Church of the Nazarene, on Friday, November 6, 2020. The family will greet and visit with friends beginning at 10:00 a.m. with funeral services to follow at 11:00 a.m. Interment will be held at Magnolia Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully asks that donations be made to Warner Robins First Church of the Nazarene Building Fund, 300 Lois Drive, Warner Robins, Georgia 31088, or, Heart of Georgia Hospice, 103 Westridge Drive, Warner Robins, Georgia 31088.

Roz was born in Pepperton, Georgia, to the late Willie Guss and Clyde Lee Wise. In 1951, Roz moved to Warner Robins to be closer to his work. He worked as both a sheet metal mechanic and a technical services writer, for both Zantop and Robins Air Force Base, for over thirty years. Roz loved spending football Saturday’s Between the Hedges as he cheered on his beloved Georgia Bulldawg’s. He shared his love for the Lord at the Warner Robins First Church of the Nazarene, where Roz was one of the original members. He enjoyed putting the pieces of his family tree together researching his own ancestry. Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by his devoted wife of fifty-six years, Sibey Nelson McCoy Wise; his siblings, Hillary Wise, Laney Wise, and Baynolli Mayfield; and his great-grand-daughter, Hailey Buddemeyer.

In Pap’s own words he’d tell you to “Be Sweet”.

I cannot believe it has been a year since you left us and went home to Heaven. There is not a day goes by that I don't think of you. We miss you terribly. However, I know you are happy. I am sure that Mother was glad to see you, as were all of your other loved ones that went before you. Everyone here thinks you but a bug in God's ear to let your beloved Dawgs beat the Gators and the Braves win the World Series. I am going to end this post the way you ended all our Thursday night conversations, We love you and Be Sweet.

Queen Mother I am so sorry for your loss. I remember fixing Pap's car one day, when the seat came off the track. Mr. Ken and I went out and we got everything lined back up. We were sitting in the living room chatting, and guess who was making his way outside.... Yup, Pap. He was going out to make sure I had done a quality job. Ken and I laughed about that, and he did come back inside and thank me for fixing his car. I promise to remind you every now and then to "Be Sweet." I always enjoyed seeing Pap at WR-Naz, and remember one Sunday he was talking while Jeremy was praying. LOL. Rest In Peace Pap from "The Big Fella with the Beard."

Leslie, I am so sorry for your loss. You have been such a dutiful daughter. You and Ken were so good to him. I know you will miss him deeply. Roz had a gift for always making me feel he was so glad to see me. And he always asked my how David, Jr. was doing. He lived a long and wonderful life serving the Lord. Blessings! Leslie I am so sorry to hear about your Dad! How well I remember the years we all spent at the Church of the Nazarene and your Dad always sitting near the door with your Mom, the times I spent visiting at your house. He will be greatly missed I'm sure but you have the greatest thing and that is the memories no one can take away! Love you, Sharon Martin Sanders

This is our first Father's Day without you. It just doesn't seem right. I know that you are in the presence of God and are there with everyone that you loved and went before. However, that doesn't make it any easier or less painful. We love you and we miss you. Be sweet
