BRYAN LEE KIBLER

FEB 21, 1961 - MAR 14, 2022

Bryan Lee Kibler of Andersonville passed away peacefully on March 14th 2022 at the age of 61 during his stay at the Regency Hospital in Macon after a grueling fight with cancer. Bryan was the beloved son of Kenneth and Shirley Kibler of Ohio, born on February 21st 1961. He was preceded in death by his Father, Kenneth Willard Kibler. Survived by his mother Shirley, sister Connie, Children Tamara (Fabian) Villareal, Caressa (Dominique) Simmons, Kenneth (Katherine) Kibler, Sarah Kibler and Ernie Kibler and many loved grandchildren. Bryan was born in Ohio and grew up in Medway and moved to Boynton Beach Fl in youth with his family. There he began his career as a pipe fitter and expanding a family of his own. Bryan enjoyed Nascar, fishing, hunting and the quietness of the great outdoors. If he wasn't working, you could find him doing one of those activities. Bryan will surely be missed for his witty/sharp tongue. The family would like to thank the staff of both Houston medical Center and Regency Macon for taking care of Bryan in his last few months of life. They provided comfort and peace for Bryan and family during this hardship. At this time there is no funeral or memorial planned. The family requests any donations be made to Tunnels to Towers Foundation as Bryan was a huge supporter of the work done by this foundation.
