Love this picture of Linda and will always treasure the memories made with Linda, Larry and John during the many years we were frequent customers at Lynco. The pleasant, caring, helpful attitudes of all three of them made us feel like we were all family. What kind Christian people they were. We pray that the wonderful memories of Linda will bring you all much peace and comfort in the days ahead. Love and prayers to you all. Bill and Barbi Flournoy

Robert, John, and Lynn, what a precious person your Mother/sister was. I did not have the privilege of knowing her very long but just a short time with her was enough to know her heart for the Lord. And I know her Godly Spirit shines through her son (my son-in-love) Robert. I am so glad she was able to enjoy Katie for a while. My condolences to each of you.

She will be missed. She made an impact on me & Lisa N Michael DeWitt lives. I will always remember her Christian example & words of wisdom & love she imparted to me when the kids got married 16 years ago. She was their Sunday School teacher at that time. Thank you Ms Linda for letting your light shine.
