Jan and family. I well remember Jackie as our milkman and then later when he worked at the Board of Education when I worked at Tucker Elem. He and Floyd kept our equipment going and us laughing. Hold tight to your years of memories.

Living in Texas meant that I didn't see Jackie often. However we determined the telephone was a great invention and kept in touch. I will miss him and I will miss our talks. Thomas Bembry

I am so sorry for your loss. I know Jackie will be greatly missed. I don't think he ever met a stranger. It's always hard in times of a lost loved one but y'all are a strong family. Will see y'all soon. Love y'all. Aunt Cindy
