Jarrett was born on December 24, 1935, to the late Henry and Blanche Lacey Nelson. He proudly served in the Georgia Army National Guard for over ten years. Jarrett married the love of his life, Betty Batchelor, in 1958, and the couple raised two sons. He was a Mason for over fifty years and was an active member of Houston Lake Baptist Church.

Jarrett was preceded in death by his parents; his brothers, Dan Nelson, Charles Nelson, and Melvin Nelson; and his sister, Faye Schollenberger Pace.

Left to cherish the memories they made with Jarrett are his loving and devoted wife of nearly sixty-five years, Betty Batchelor Nelson; his sons and daughters-in-law, Earl and Wendy Nelson and Wayne and Pam Nelson, all of Perry; his grandchildren, Cody Nelson (Halee), Logan Nelson, and Lacey Nelson; six great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Mrs. Betty, Earl, Wayne & Families, I am so sorry to hear of Mr. Jarrett's passing. I remember getting gas at his station so many years ago when I started driving and he was always smiling and the sweetest man! My prayers are with each of you and asking God to provide comfort and understanding for each of you.

Praying that your wonderful storybook of memories will give you comfort in the difficult days ahead. Love & Hugs ❤️👤

Jarrett was my pew partner. After checking on each other's health we got down to the business of the day. Jarrett was one of those people that you always felt smarter after talking with him. He had a wealth of knowledge on many subjects. He and Betty were contact points for their classes, so they always had news. His low key attitude made him comfortable to be around. He leaves Betty with a wealth of wonderful memories. Will miss him.
