ZUNI, VIRGINIA –

Sheila Ann (Graves) Prince, 65, passed away peacefully at her home on Sunday, December 14, 2025, with her loving family by her side. Funeral Services will be held on Sunday, December 21, 2025, in the Chapel at Christ's Sanctified Holy Church Campground in Perry, Georgia. Born January 28, 1960, to the late Dorothy and Clifton Graves, Sheila grew up in Chesapeake, Virginia, and graduated from Great Bridge High School. Sheila dedicated her life to caring for others. As a skilled cosmetologist, she brought joy to elderly clients, helping them look and feel their best. She later found her true calling as a caregiver at Zuni Presbyterian Home Services, where she worked with individuals with disabilities. There, she led exercise classes, organized outings, and provided compassionate support in all aspects of daily life. Above all, Sheila embodied unconditional love, cherishing her family and friends with her whole heart.

Sheila was preceded in death by her parents, Dorothy Rose Graves and Clifton Ernest Graves.

Left to cherish the memories they made with Sheila are her loving and devoted husband of 36 years, Roger Prince; her three children, Wesley Drumheller (Christina), Rachel Drumheller (Mike), and Jessie Drumheller; her daughter-in-law, Amy Drumheller; seven grandchildren, Cody Drumheller (Taylor), Jacob Creef (Sam), Katrina Drumheller, Cristian Taylor, Mason Drumheller, Dustin Drumheller, Kaliegh Thomas, and Landon Drumheller; her sisters, Karen Graves and Gina Graves Puckett; and her dearest friend, Daphne Reese, who provided loving care during Sheila's final months. She is also survived by countless family members and friends whom she loved deeply.

We were just acquaintances, in school, but I do remember her. May God's comforting hand be upon the family at this time. This will be an amazing Christmas, for Sheila.
