Mrs.Suber lived across the street from my family and she was always a ray of sunshine and comfort in our neighborhood! We truly loved her so much and my mom was saddened when she moved to North Carolina but understood that was best for Mrs. Marjorie! Heaven is rejoicing as God welcomes her home and I know those ivory keys are playing away with joy and love. Prayers and hugs and love for her family!

I'm so sorry to read this about Mrs. Suber. She was a sport model and boy could she play a piano! Mrs Suber was a very dear friend of my mother-in-law Weenie Keuper. They were both in the duet club and the Joy Choir. Mrs Suber was a kind caring soft spoken lady. I know God welcomed her with open arms. What a lady. Rest in peace Mrs Suber. You lived a great life.
