

Mavineen "Mae" Mitchell Greer

November 23, 1928 - June 25, 2019

Mavineen "Mae" Mitchell Greer, 90, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, June 25, 2019. Funeral Services will be held at Perry Presbyterian Church on Saturday, June 29, 2019, beginning at 11:00 a.m. Visitation will begin at 10:00 a.m. Interment will be private at Perry Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully asks that donations be made to Perry Presbyterian Church, 1111 South 2nd Street, Perry, Georgia 31069, OR to the donor's favorite charity.

Mavineen was born in Mershon, Georgia, to the late Willie Robert and Eula Andrew Mitchell. She was raised in Crawford County, which is where she would eventually meet her husband, William Richard Greer. After courting for several years, she accepted his proposal, they got married, and built their home on the family farm. In 1957, they relocated to Perry to raise their children. She treasured the role of being a Mama and grandmother. Her family knew that when they would arrive at her house, she'd always have food on the stove ready to feed whoever came to the door. Mae valued her friendships and knew Facebook better than most of her family. It was a tool for her to check on everyone that she couldn't personally visit. She always took time to give a hug, an encouraging word, or pray with those going through hard times. Richard and Mae were founding members of Rehoboth Baptist Church. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her loving husband of sixty-four years; her daughter-in-law, Gladys Greer; her siblings, Lula Carnes, Laverne Bohon, Willie M. Mitchell, and Tom W. Mitchell.

Left to cherish the memories they shared with Mae are her children, Ronnie Greer of Americus, Brenda Greer Evans (Chop) of Ft. Valley, and Tim Greer (Susie) of Perry; her grandchildren, Matthew Greer (Estelle), Nathan Greer (Emily), Alva Davis (Amy), Katie Davis Hester (Shane), Mitch Greer (Shelley), Kyle Greer (Candace), Michael White (Dianne), Charlie Evans (Caitlin), Elizabeth Holton (Charles), and Lee Evans (Katie); and seventeen great-grandchildren. The family wishes to extend gratitude to caregivers Kay Barnes and Lula Cherry for their love and friendship.

Condolences for the family may be left in the online guestbook at www.watsonhunt.com.

Watson-Hunt Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements.

“ I am truly so, so sorry to hear about the passing of Mae. I didn't learn of her passing until just recent. I had no idea and I feel so bad that I didn't know. She and my mother were 1st cousins and they were so close and loved one another dearly and talked every day to one another until my mother passed in 2006. I loved her so much, she was like a second mother to me. We talked on the phone often. She liked me bringing her goodies at Christmas. She enjoyed our visits and we enjoyed being there. She was so, so sweet, loving, kind and caring towards everyone. She truly was a GOD loving woman and had such a strong faith in GOD! I know she's in heaven with her lord and savior and she's with Richard now. I know that was a glorious day for her, being able to see him again. I will keep each and everyone of you in my prayers. With Love, Cathy Whitaker

“ Brenda, Ronnie, and Tim, this was sad news to read tonight and I know the pain of losing your mama. Ms. Mae, as I called her, was a friend to all that knew her and very good to me as a member of our Sunday School Class at Rehoboth. Yes, she gained her angel wings. Praying for all the family tonight.
