

Wanda Denney Bartlett

April 26, 1937 - August 7, 2018

PERRY- Wanda Denney Bartlett, 81, passed away on Tuesday, August 7, 2018. The family will visit with friends on Friday, August 10, 2018, at 1:00 p.m. at Marshallville Baptist Church with the Funeral Service immediately following, with the Funeral Service starting at 2:00 p.m. A private burial will be held in Marshallville City Cemetery. Flowers will be appreciated or memorial contributions may be made to Heart of Georgia Hospice, 1120 Morningside Drive, Perry, GA 31069. Wanda was born in Hogansville to the late Robert Denney and the late Velma Zimmerman Anderson on April 26, 1937. A graduate of Hogansville High School, she married her high school sweetheart, JW Bartlett, Jr., shortly after graduation. The couple purchased a home in Marshallville where they would raise their family. Mrs. Bartlett was always a wonderful hostess through the years, having birthday parties, Easter egg hunts, and other holiday celebrations every year for 50 years. Wanda and JW loved bowling, and they were in a bowling league for many years. Mrs. Bartlett enjoyed cooking for her family and friends, and they loved what she fed them. She loved babies and children, which was obvious, since she had four children. When she began having grandchildren, she always enjoyed being with them, and they considered her to be the "best grandma." Wanda had a servant's heart and was a caregiver for her brother and her husband when they each needed her most. For the past eight years, dementia slowly took over her mind and her memories, but she never forgot the love she had for babies, as her great-grandchildren became one of the few things that could make her smile in the end. Now that her granddaughter, Samantha, has bought the "old Bartlett home" in Marshallville, "Mom Mom" will surely be smiling down from Heaven on every holiday and birthday that is celebrated right there where she raised her own children. Mrs. Bartlett was predeceased by her parents; her loving husband of 50 years, JW Bartlett, Jr.; her brother, Ronnie Denney; and her son, Dennis Bartlett. Left to cherish the memories they made with Mrs. Wanda are her children, Lynn Stafford (Richard) of Marshallville, Mark Bartlett and Ben Bartlett (Von), both of Perry; her grandchildren, Stacy Stafford (Jim Ennis), Daniel Stafford (Summer), Katie Calderon (Jon), Joel Stafford, Matthew Bartlett, Samantha Jones (Barry), Brittany Bartlett, Jonathan Bartlett (Lydia), Jacob Bartlett, Mary Kate Bartlett, Benjamin Bartlett (Teryn), and Rachel Bartlett; twelve great-grandchildren; and her daughter-in-law, Tina Bartlett. Condolences for the family may be left in the online

“ So sorry for your loss. I watched Wanda Grow up in Hogansville. She was a beautiful and sweet soul and always had a smile for everyone!!!

Gloria Prather - August 09, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Dearest Tina, Lynn, Ben, Mark and Bartlett Family, please accept our prayers and love. Your mother was so beautiful and always very sweet and made us feel welcomed whenever we saw her. We know how it is to have to say goodbye to both mother and father in the here and now. And I know about losing a brother too. But we will see them again some day. Hugs, kisses and love to you all!! Always, Tom and Karen.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I remember Wanda as a child in Hogansville when all children would go to Aunt Etta Mae's and Aunt Lovella's on Sunday afternoons. She was younger than most of us, but always tried to do what everyone else was doing. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Affectionately, Jeanette West (cousin of Wanda)

“ We are so sorry for your loss! Prayers to all of the family!

The Harrelon's - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ We are all diminished with the passing of another of the vanguard that made our paths easier. Wanda Bartlett was always generous to me and tolerant of my impetuosity. I pray that the fullness returns to these wounded hearts with Godspeed. My most sincere condolences go out to the extended family.
